2020 Rampant Red

Red with a purple hue.

Aromas of blackberry and black plums are complimented by a hint of aniseed, white peppercorn and toffee apples. Ripe plum and toffee mingle with earthy and savoury elements. Medium weight and succulent with fine tannins and a warm perfumed finish.

Hamelin Bay's symbol is the heraldic beast called a wyvern, which is shown in full sway or rampant on this label.

It suggests the wine has an exuberant spirit and lively character.

2020 Reserve Shiraz

Red with a purple hue.

Intriguing aromas of black cherry, black plum and kola with a hint of vanilla and coconut. A complex wine which unfolds with time. Beautifully supple with immense restraint and balance. The 2020 Five Ashes Reserve Shiraz has a dense and brooding palate with dark fruit, dark spices and a toasty influence, and excellent drive finishing with a dark chocolate bitterness. This is a wonderful example of the Five Ashes terroir and what it can produce.
